PRE-GAME & GAME DAY PARKING INFORMATION

FRIDAY BEFORE GAME

All vehicles must be moved by 8pm from the following lots, towing will be enforced. If lots are used for event parking, vehicles must be moved immediately after the event. Students can begin moving their vehicles to the relocation lots starting at 2pm, Friday.

- Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 11, 13, and 14
- Frog Alley Parking Garage (FAPG) and surrounding spaces (including reserved in Lot 5)
- Lot 6 (Visitor Lot)
- The Harrison and Admission Center Lot
- Tom Brown/Pete Wright Visitor Lot (Bellaire Dr. N) exceptions are Hall Directors and those with handicap placards or plates
- Fine will be assessed on vehicles that must be towed or that do not move for the event.

All of the University Christian Church and University Baptist Church parking lots are not available for general, student, or employee parking on football game days. The churches have control of these parking lots on the weekends, by contract, and sell these spaces. Please be aware that if you park in these lots your vehicle will be towed by a third-party towing company at the owner's expense. The University Baptist Church will chain off their lots beginning at 5:00 pm on Fridays for every home game this fall. Please make sure your vehicles are removed from their lots by that time.

CITY PARKING SIGNS & TOWING

The City of Fort Worth places temporary "No Parking" signs along many streets near campus. These signs are placed after midnight Saturday and vehicles will be towed by the City of Fort Worth, even if parked before the signs are placed.

SATURDAY, GAME DAY

- No parking in the TCU Campus Store lot or behind Beasley Hall (reserved for wedding participants/guests at Robert Carr Chapel)
- North Drive (between Sherley/Waits and Colby/Foster) is used for visiting University band. No parking except handicap and Hall Director. No game day parking. Towing enforced.
- Employees who are not affiliated with game-day operations (but who will work on campus on home game days) may park on the east campus in any lot that is not blocked by a traffic control device or manned by a security guard.
- Vehicles may return to normal permitted parking once lots are released at the conclusion of the game.

SUNDAY AFTER GAME DAY

All vehicles must return to normal permitted parking by 11pm Sunday.
